

The Global Psychology Alliance is delighted to participate in the Vivian G. Prins Scholars at Risk Speaker Series, providing an opportunity to hear from a diverse, courageous group of scholars, each with a powerful and unique story to share. We will learn about their academic work and experiences, as well as about threats to academic freedom and attacks on scholars. Events will take place on April 5, May 3, and June 7. Register for the May 3 talk here: <https://bit.ly/387M3gm>

Upcoming events

	Yudit Namer, PhD (Turkey), is a clinical psychologist, psychotherapist, and researcher at Bielefeld School of Public Health in Germany, where she studies racism and healthcare for marginalized groups.	Relational justice in/and psychological research May 3, 9:00-10:00am ET Marginalized communities such as LGBTQI people are often mistreated by researchers due to “relational injustice” – a form of inequality that encompasses a formally and structurally maintained prejudice toward specific sociodemographic groups, incorporating topics of study, communities worked with, and specific questions asked and ignored. Psychotherapists are well aware of how these social and political dynamics can be harmful. In therapy, we strive to create a safe space for the client to repair the relational injustice they have suffered. These skills can help us better understand and conduct research with marginalized communities in order to restore relational justice. Register here: https://bit.ly/387M3gm
	Fayyaz Baqir, MA (Pakistan) is an expert on participatory development, inclusive governance, and poverty alleviation. He has worked at institutions all over the world, most recently the University of	Human rights as a discourse of hope June 7, 9:00-10:00am ET More information and registration link to be shared closer to the event.

Ottawa in Canada.

Past events

	Shuchi Karim, PhD (Bangladesh), is a researcher at the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Carleton University in Canada, where she studies gender and sexuality, reproductive health rights, transnational feminism, intersectionality, and development issues.	Scholar activism April 5, 1:00-2:00pm ET This event has taken place.
---	--	--

Contact Gabriel Twose, PhD (gtwose@apa.org), in the American Psychological Association’s Office of International Affairs for more information.